To find out for which category you may apply and about the amount of funding through Erasmus Mundus, as well as about other funding and scholarship sources, please refer to tise-master.eu.

3. About Admission Requirements

3.1 The Admission Requirements

To apply to the TISE program, applicants have to show that they fulfil the following admission requirements.

- Applicants must hold a first university degree. This should be at least a Bachelor Degree issued by a university, quantified as three years of studies corresponding to 180 ECTS.

If ECTS is not used in the country where the first degree was acquired: proof of a successfully completed period of study at higher education level considered comparable with a Bachelor Degree. The decision on this will be made by the TISE Consortium.

- Applicants shall show a strong motivation and interest to learn and work in the field of innovations and sustainable societal transitions.
- Applicants shall have sufficient knowledge of English for academic purposes. This is to be proved by an English language test certificate accepted by TISE programme (see below).

Sufficient knowledge of English for academic purposes is vital for student success in TISE. The requirements explained here follow the different institutional and national regulations of the consortium partners. TISE consortium can only accept the five English language test certificates listed in this guideline, and can only grant exemptions on basis of the three cases explained in this guideline.

3.2 English Language Test Certificates accepted by TISE Programme

TISE program only accepts the following five English language test certificates as proof of proficiency in English:

- 1) TOEFL (Test of English as a Foreign Language) with a minimum score of 92 (Internet-based test) or of 580 (paper-based test);
 Note: scores from TOEFL ITP/institutional testing programme are not accepted.
- 2) IELTS (Academic), (International English Language Testing System); with a minimum band score of 6.5 with no individual score below 5.5.
- 3) PTE (Academic) (Pearson's Test of Academic English) with a minimum score of 62.
- 4) C1 Advanced, formerly known as Cambridge English: Advanced/CAE (test offered by Cambridge Assessment English), with a minimum result of grade C.
- 5) C2 Proficiency, formerly known as Cambridge English: Proficiency/CPE (test offered by Cambridge Assessment English), with a minimum result of Level C1.

3.3 Expiry and Validation of English Test Results

An English language test certificate may expire after a certain time (usually after two years – we kindly advise you to check on your certificate).

If you hold an English test certificate with an expiry date close to the application deadline, you may contact Secretariat a few weeks before the expiry date and ask to have your scores validated before the application deadline. You will be informed on the outcome of validation by e-mail. For application, please include this e-mail communication together with your English test certificate as application document No.8.

3.4 Exemption from English Language Test Requirement

Applicants may only ask for being exempted from the English language test requirement, if they have successfully completed one of the following:

- A Bachelor's degree completed in English in a university or university of applied sciences in any country of the European Union (EU) or the European Economic Area (EEA), or in Switzerland, Australia, Canada, New Zealand, the United Kingdom, the United States, or other countries where English is an official language. You must have resided in the country while studying.
- A two-year Master's degree completed in English in a university or university of applied sciences in any country of the European Union (EU) or in the European Economic Area (EEA), or in Switzerland, Australia, Canada, New Zealand, the United Kingdom, United States, or other countries where English is an official language. You must have resided in the country while studying.
- Secondary education completed in English in Australia, Canada, Ireland, New Zealand, the United Kingdom, the United States, or other countries where English is an official language.

In addition to submitting proof of an adequate degree or secondary education as described, applicants may also be interviewed before being exempted.

Please note that consortium:

- will only accept the five English language test certificates listed in this guideline, and
- will only grant exemptions on basis of the three cases explained (see above).

Because of national and institutional requirements of the consortium partners, we cannot make any other exceptions from the English language test requirement.

3.5 Work Experience

Work experience is not an admission requirement.

However, work experience can be a strong advantage for an application. To have work experience acknowledged, applicants should clearly state it in their CV (employer, duration, function, tasks and responsibilities) and may attach a confirmation of their employer to the CV. Furthermore, recommendation letters to be submitted as application document No. 9 can be from a supervisor at work.

No. 8: Proof of proficiency in English language

For the accepted ways to prove your proficiency in English, please see chapter on Admission Requirements above. The result of the English test has to be included as a scanned copy.

- explain how you perceive/imagine your contribution to work towards societal challenges, using your areas of excellence and interests

We do not expect you to produce a professional high-quality video. A video made with a mobile phone or laptop camera (webcam) is sufficient, as long as you are well visible and audible.

6. Translation and Legalisation of Documents

Translation of Documents

If an applicant would like to submit original documents, which are not in English, officially certified translations into English have to be provided in addition to the original. This is likely to apply to official documents and to university diplomas and transcripts (documents no. 2, 5 and 6 in the list of application documents).

Officially certified translation means that the translation has been done by a sworn and officially accredited translator, and that the document has to bear the translator's stamp of accreditation. For countries where accredited translators do not hold such a stamp of accreditation, in most cases a public notary can confirm the translator's accreditation.

For university documents, it is also possible to ask the issuing university to provide a certified translation into English. In this case, the university should apply its stamp on the translated document.

Legalisation of Documents

For the application process, university documents do not require legalisation; but they may have to be translated into English (see above). Legalisation may be necessary after a student has been selected for participation and is asked to submit university documents from the first university degree for the admission process to the TISE program.
